Expressive Arts

- Make up a boat/seaside area in the classroom for pretend play. Collect items you might find at the seashore and display or use as props.
- Use percussion instruments to make the sounds of the sea. Try to think of words in dialect that describe the sea state.
- Use sand, stones, shells, driftwood to make a model beach or wall display. Label items in dialect if possible.
- Draw your own pictures to illustrate the poems.
- Whit do you fin ida ebb? - Wall display.

Technologies

- Take photos of shells mentioned in the poem Shalls. Make a short film or slide show using the photos. Record the poem and put in time to the film.
- Make up a talking book for any of the suggested poems.

Language

- Listen to poems for enjoyment. Discuss any new words.
- Collect dialect 'sea' words. Play a memory game to help remember the words.
- Write another verse of a poem.
- Create another character/friend for Tammie da Troot. Write a poem or story about them.
- Write a letter to send in a bottle
- Choose an object you found on the beach and write your own poem.

Social Studies

- Go for a trip to the beach. Look out for wildlife, collect shells and driftwood. Use what you have collected for craft work back in the classroom.
- Explore the importance of the sea to people in Shetland. Find out what industries and activities are centred around the sea locally.
- Make and sell products with sea words and pictures.
